

— 2021 Speaker Series on Race & Counseling —

How Biases Affect Racism

William E. Hudson, SR, PhD, CRC, CHS

Abstract: This presentation will explore the ways in which biases affect racism. It will discuss the role of implicit bias, stereotype threat, and microaggressions in the perpetuation of racism. It will also discuss the ways in which these biases can be identified and addressed in the counseling profession.

About William E. Hudson, SR, PhD, CRC, CHS

William E. Hudson, SR, PhD, CRC, CHS is an Associate Professor and Director of the Center for the Study of Race and Ethnicity in the Department of Counseling and Human Services at the University of North Carolina at Charlotte. He is also a licensed professional counselor and a certified diversity trainer. He has published numerous articles and books on race and ethnicity in counseling. He is currently co-editing a book on race and ethnicity in counseling. He is also a frequent speaker at national and international conferences on race and ethnicity in counseling.

March 23, 2021

12:00 PM